Re: Comments: Legislation No. 0112-21 - NOT SUPPORTED

On behalf of the 6,000 Navajo businesses, the Dineh Chamber of Commerce and other business organizations here on the Navajo Nation, the Dineh Chamber of Commerce does NOT support proposed legislation no. 0112-21, the Navajo Nation Uniform Tax Administration Statute amendments:

Any tax legislation should have public hearings particularly if impacts are passed-on to Navajo businesses. Historically, the Office of the Navajo Tax commission holds Public Hearings to give the public and business community a chance to comment. Perhaps given Covid-19, the Tax Commission decided to forego this important process. This should not be case as this legislation appears to be rushed through the process. Public hearings are important. As such, we strongly recommend that this legislation be sent back to the Navajo Tax Commission. Our tax commission needs to hear from the business public.

Proposed legislation no. 0112-21, by section proposes to:

- Section 103 allows the Tax Commission to keep 5% of tax revenues collected and 100% of all fines collected with no intended purpose. The Tax Commission budget should be considered like other program budgets – annually and through the budget process.
- Section 104 clarifies several definitions that appear appropriate.
- Section 108 provides allowance for the Commission is amend the annual January 15th Form 100 due date.
- Section 110 adds one (1) additional year for record retainage to seven (7) years.
- Section 112 increases the penalty for late submission of tax commission document from $50 to $200, a $150 or 300% increase. This is substantial and anti-business.
- Section 114 proposes to add more fees and stringent requirement for “evading or defeating” Navajo taxes. The new language is too complicated.
- Section 115 adds more complications for “administrative costs.” This is over regulation for our Navajo businesses.
- Section 116 amends a business ability to do business on Navajo if the “Code and Regulations” not complied with. Moreover, a business cannot sell, transfer or otherwise a business unless the Tax Commission approves. This is overreaching power for the Tax Commission.
- Section 117 details process concerning illegalities.
- Section 126 interferes with the sale of businesses. This section questions the taxpayer.

- Section 127 add the Navajo Nation President as signatory to any mutual assistance agreement.
- Section 129 extends the statute of limitation from 4 to 6 years plus it adds discretion to the powers of the Navajo Tax Commission. This discretion is too broad.
- Section 130 complicates the ability to seek refunds for legitimate over payment of taxes. Keep it simple should be the policy.
- Section 133 adds language to the closing agreement process.
- Section 134 add language to the confidentiality rules.
- Section 138 clarifies the Tax Administration Suspense Fund.
- Section 140 clarifies the effective date.

Proposed Legislation 0112-21 not include and should mandatory automation of tax payments and tax document administration/submission like other taxing authorities have in place.

We look forward to the hearings as this is important to the business community.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be 'Jefferson Begay', written over a horizontal line.
